HSBC WARNS AGAINST PHISHING SMS AND FRAUDULENT WEBSITE

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited would like to alert its customers to a phishing SMS and a fraudulent website which purported to be from HSBC.

The phishing SMS suggests that recipients may have added a new payee. If they haven't, they should click a link (<https://hsbc-onlinelogin.com/hk>) .

HSBC would like to remind its customers that it has no connection with the phishing SMS and fraudulent website. Customers are advised not to click any link in the SMS or provide the website with any personal information, although the link is currently inaccessible.

Below is the screen capture of the phishing SMS:

Phishing SMS

A new payee has been added today.
If this was not you, visit: <https://hsbc-onlinelogin.com/hk>

Customers are reminded to ensure they are connected to a valid HSBC site. The Bank's Hong Kong domain is <http://www.hsbc.com.hk>. Customers should access banking services by keying in the website address at the address bar of the browser.

If customers are concerned, they should call the HSBC Personal Customer service hotline at 2233 3000 or report to the Police.
