HSBC WARNS AGAINST PHISHING EMAIL

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited would like to alert its customers to a phishing email purported to be from HSBC. The phishing email suggests that recipients can participate in a survey and receive a gift.

HSBC would like to remind its customers that it has no connection with the phishing email involved. Customers are advised not to open any link in the email. The public should also safe-keep their login credentials. HSBC reiterated that it will not send SMS or email messages with embedded hyperlinks directing customers to its websites or mobile applications to carry out transactions, or request for sensitive personal information or credit card details from customers through hyperlinks.

Below is the screen capture of the phishing email:
